

Mr. Mihir Mehta is a dedicated technocrat who has worked with global leaders like Crompton Greaves, Areva T&D India Limited (now Schneider Electric) and Delhi Metro Rail Corporation (DMRC). He has accomplished his Diploma in Electrical Engineering from Nirma University, Bachelor's degree from Jaipur Engineering College and Master's degree from Gujarat Technological University (GTU). He is rendering his services to M & V Patel Department of Electrical Engineering, CSPIT, Charusat as an Assistant Professor since January 2016. His immense research interest includes Wind Turbines, Grid Integrations & designing of different control strategies. He is also designated as FACULTY CHAMPION at Entrepreneurship Development Cell (EDC). He is an active TPR (Training and Placement Representative) and organizes seminars for guiding students right from better aptitude and work approach till preparing for group discussions and personal interview. He also holds the key responsibility of internal and external result analysis at department level.